No. 29.—The following notification of the Government of India is republished:—

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY.

Schemes.

No. 5867—5893—23.

Bombay, the 12th September 1912.

RECOMMEND.—By the Government of India, Department of Commerce and Industry.

With the approval of the Secretary of State for India the Governor General in Council is pleased to direct that the rules for the supply of articles for the public service approved in this Notification shall be continued for the rules promulgated with the Notification in this Department No. 5811 1909-10, dated the 10th July 1903, as amended from time to time.

Rules for the supply of articles for the Public Service.

Subject to the provisions of the General Rules specified below, and to any Instructions regarding specific orders which have been, or may be, issued by the Government of India from time to time (e.g., those relating to the supply of stationery), the following are the rules relating to the supply of articles required for the public service:—

All articles which are produced in India in the form of raw material, or are manufactured in India from materials produced in India, should, by preference, be purchased locally, provided that the quality is sufficiently good for the purpose, and the price not unobtainable.

All articles manufactured in India from imported materials should, by preference, be purchased in India, subject, however, to the following conditions:—

- That a substantial part of the process of manufacture of the articles purchased has been performed in India.
- That the price is as low as that at which articles of similar quality can be obtained through the India Office.
- That the materials employed are subjected to such inspection and tests as may be prescribed by the Government of India.

Articles which are not manufactured in India should be obtained by direct import upon the sanction of the India Office, except in the following cases:—

- When the articles are already in India at the time of order, and their price and quality are not unobtainable as compared with those at which similar articles could be obtained through the India Office, and the cost of the supply does not exceed the limits prescribed at the end of Rule 12.

- (b) In the case of important construction works let out on contract, articles not manufactured in India required for the construction of such works may be supplied by the contracting firm, subject to the following conditions:—
- (1) That the firm is approved by the Government of India and is included in the list of firms so approved.
- (2) That the materials are subject to the current specifications and tests prescribed by the Government of India.

Rule 4.—Articles which may be purchased in India.

The following articles, whether manufactured or produced in India or not, may be purchased in India, provided that the quality required is obtainable:—

- (a) Types of portable engines.
- (b) Engines.
- (c) Steamers.
- (d) Wires and English bested bars for the use of Government hospitals in India.
- (e) Kerosene oil.
- (f) Tins and materials for electric installations intended to take current from existing centres.
- The local purchase of electric power plants and lighting plant which involve the provision of generators and cables for distribution is not, however, permissible under this clause.
- (g) American lumber.
- (h) Australian copper.
- (i) Indian metals.
- (j) Such other classes of articles as may from time to time be prescribed by the Government of India. All such cases should be reported to the Secretary of State for his information.

Rule 5.—Special purchases in India.

When serious inconvenience to the public service would be caused by waiting in, or when an article from England through the Director-General of Stores, or when, owing to the greater promptitude of supply, an economy can be effected by purchasing in India articles which, under the foregoing rules, should be obtained through the Store Department, the purchase may be made in India, subject to Rule 12, provided that the articles are already in India at the time of order; but in such cases, if the value of the articles exceeds Rs. 100, the contracting officer should place on record the reasons which make the local purchase desirable. The record shall be available for the inspection of the Director of Accounts or the Superintending officer when required.

Rule 6.—Inter-departmental purchases.

Nothing in the rules is to be deemed to prohibit the purchase of stores of European manufacture by one Department or Railway from another.

All articles which under the foregoing rules are not to be bought in India should be obtained by letter on the Store Department of the India Office, except any which the Secretary of State may have specially authorized the Government of India or its officers to purchase direct outside India. Such purchase is at present permissible in the case of the following articles:—

- (i) Books.
- (ii) Carbons bank.
- (iii) Articles for experimental or research purposes required by officers approved by the Government of India from time to time. A list of the officers thus approved is given in Appendix A.
- (iv) Stores, instruments and apparatus required by Provincial Store Departments for experimental or research purposes.
- (v) Glass, glass, cutlery, plate, and stockery for the kitchens of Headquarters.
- (vi) Australian lumber.
- (vii) Australian food.
- (viii) Such articles as Supply Departments of Indian Depots may require for the preparation of scientific lymph (e.g. medicine and glycerine).

Note.—Requests for stores purchased under this rule should be made direct to the suppliers by the purchasing officers.

General Notes.

Rule 8.—Form of requisitions.

Every effort should be made to format requisitions so that there may be single time to send forward orders for such articles as should under the rules be obtained from the India Office. Permitted failure of one officer to make such efforts should be brought to notice by the Local Government or other authority, which may, at its discretion, suspend or reduce the power of making orders to the officer in fault.

Rule 9.—Time required to obtain stores from England.

It may be assumed that the time required from the transmission of an order upon the Secretary of State to the receipt of the stores is:—

Urgent telegraphic orders, not less than three months.

Ordinary orders, six to ten months, according to the article demanded.

For special stores, e.g. large orders, sailing stock, etc., up to one year in ordinary times.

Rule 10.—Method of carrying prices.

In all cases in which the selection of stores of supply depends upon comparison of prices, the procedure to be adopted for such a comparison is as follows:—

- (a) A preference should be made to those prices as shown in the Rate Lists, and freight should be added at the lowest rates paid by the India Office together with 10c. 4d. per 100K. for insurance, 2c. 4d. per 100K. for insurance, and 10c. per ton for freight loadings.

(i) In cases of important contracts, the price ruling in the English market should be ascertained by telegraphic reference to the Director-General of Imports.

(ii) In cases where the necessary information, as to Home prices is not available from the State Lists, the purchase in India, shall be subject to the condition that the price is not unfavourable.

(iv) In order to arrive at the market value at an Indian Port of the article imported from England the following charges shall be included:—

(b) Customs duty, as shown in the Tariff to be applicable to the article in question, to be ascertained on the basis of the additional charges mentioned in the earlier part of this rule.

(v) The cost of carriage to site from port or place of manufacture, as the case may be, shall be taken into account.

RULE 11.—Tests.

Any articles purchased in India which should be tested are liable to the specifications laid down from time to time by competent authority, with the approval of the Secretary of State in Council, and should be required to pass the tests prescribed for such articles.

RULE 12.—Items from which free and steel may be bought in India.

Imported iron and steel work, if purchased in India, shall only be obtained from those approved by the Local Government or Administration and entered in a schedule as sanctioned from time to time by the Government of India. A list of approved firms is given in Appendix II.

RULE 13.—Financial limits to powers of officials to make purchases in India.

Proceedings of the Council of the Government General of India assembled for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations on Thursday the 19th September 1912	425

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

Bills introduced in the Council of the Government General of India for making Laws and Regulations, Reports of Select Committees presented to the Council, and Bills published under Rule 28.

The following Report of the Select Committee on the Bill to make better provision for the protection and preservation of certain wild birds and animals was presented to the Council of the Government General of India for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations on the 19th September 1912:—

We, the undersigned, Members of the Select Committee to which the Bill to make better provision for the protection and preservation of certain wild birds and animals was referred, have considered the Bill, and have now the honour to submit this our Report, with the Bill as amended by us, to the Council.

1. We have amended clause 3 of the Bill and empowered Local Governments to declare those areas for the benefit and young of such wild birds and animals as are protected by the Bill.

2. We have amended clause 5 by striking out that portion of the clause which authorises a Court to sentence any crime or other offence and for the punishment of an offence under the Act.

3. We have added a new clause to the Bill providing that no Court inferior to that of a Presidency Magistrate or a Magistrate of the second class shall try any offence under the Act.

4. We have added another new clause empowering Local Governments to grant licences to capture and kill wild birds and animals in the interests of agriculture.

5. We have amended clause 8 (now clause 8) of the Bill by exempting from punishment any person who captures or kills any wild bird or animal in contravention of the Act if he does so in the bona fide defence of any property, and it is necessary in our opinion to provide for cases where such birds and animals are captured or killed in the protection of property other than standing crops or growing fruit, which clause was included in the clause of the Bill as introduced.

3. The Local Government may, by notification in the local official Gazette, declare the whole year or any part thereof to be a close time throughout the whole or any part of its territories for any kind of wild bird or animal to which this Act applies or for birds or animals of such kind; and subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, during such close time, and within the areas specified in such notification, it shall be unlawful—

(a) to capture any such bird or animal, or to kill any such bird or animal which has not been captured before the commencement of such close time;

W. H. VINCENT,
Secy. to the Govt. of India, Legislative Dept.

(Published by order of His Excellency the Governor in Council.)

L. DAVIDSON,
Secy. to the Government, Legislative Dept.

The Hon'ble the Ruler of Kutch asked:—

- (a) How the attention of the Government has drawn to the correspondence in the "Madras Standard" in its issue of July 19th, 1932, under the heading "Madras and Coorg Amalgamation?"
- (b) Is it a fact that there is a dissimilation among the people of Coorg that they have only a Military Judge and not a Civilian or Barister Judge as their High Court Bench?
- (c) Is it a fact that petitions and memorials submitted by the people of Coorg to the Chief Commissioner, who is also the Governor of Mysore, are referred back to the region and dropped to the Assistant Commissioners, who is the local head of the Province?
- (d) Is it a fact that the local Commissioner got Chikkyappa or lower banner to be demolished recently? If so, has such demolition reduced the inhabitants of the part broken? Is it a fact that he has given notice to the inhabitants of the Goddouri or part of it by October next with a view to remove that part also? If so, will the Government be pleased to make what arrangements the local Commissioner is taking with a view?
- (e) If all or some of the above allegations are based on facts, will the Government be pleased to say whether they will consider the feasibility of the amalgamation of Coorg with the Madras Presidency, provided that there are no important reasons rendering the continuance of the separation of the Province imperative?

The Hon'ble the Hon'ble the Chief Minister replied:—

- (a) The Government of India have seen an article on the subject in the Madras Standard.
- (b) There is no High Court for Coorg, but the powers of a High Court are exercised by the Judicial Commissioner, and this office is held ex-officio by the Chief Commissioner, who is not necessarily a military officer. The Government of India are not aware of the contents of dissimilation of the notice implied in the question.
- (c) The Chief Commissioner reports that petitions and memorials which are received by him direct are either returned for submission through the local authorities, or referred to the Commissioner for report. There is no special procedure followed in such cases.
- (d) The Chief Commissioner reports that "Lower Banner" in Mysore was demolished as a sanitary precaution on account of an outbreak of plague in October last, the matter was taken up by the public who submitted memorials to the Government as a Coorgian Memorial. The house was acquired for the purpose, and Rs. 24,000 out of the Rs. 16,500 which the acquisition was authorised by the public. Compensation was granted to owners. It is proposed to adopt a similar measure with regard to the "Upper Banner" as an urgent sanitary measure, and the inhabitants are willing to move if granted compensation. The matter is awaiting the provision of funds.
- (e) There has been no recent discussion of the possibility of the amalgamation of Coorg with the Madras Presidency. The question was mentioned in 1930, when it was decided to make no change party in account of the local opposition, which it was anticipated that the proposal would excite, which, it was thought, would outweigh any advantage to be derived from the disturbance of existing arrangements. The Government of India are not aware of any reasons now regarding that the matter should be re-opened.

The Hon'ble the Ruler of Kutch asked:—

- (a) In reply to my question in the Council on 22nd March 1932, the Hon'ble Sir T. T. Wilson is the answer of his reply and "The State of the Vengalpur Railway is a place in the programme of Railway Capital expenditure for 1931-32 will receive careful consideration when the programme is under preparation."
- (b) Was the programme prepared? And, if so, was the line included therein? And, if it was so included, is it with a view to work it piece meal or at one stretch?
- (c) If it was not included, will the Government be pleased to say whether they will take early steps to complete the line? Is it a fact that the line so far as it has been constructed has been a paying one?

The Hon'ble Sir T. T. Wilson replied:—

- (a) The programme for 1931-32 was duly prepared, but it was not found possible to include in it provision for the line to which the Hon'ble Member refers. Steps, however, will be taken to complete the line when funds are available for the purpose.
- (b) About 42 miles out of a total mileage of 105 has been built. These 42 miles lay a good security and is doing well, but the country beyond is not so promising.

The Hon'ble the Ruler of Kutch asked:—

- (a) With reference to the answer to my question on 22nd March 1932, Part (b), will the Government be pleased to state whether the proposals of the Madras Government regarding Vengalpur Railway Scheme have been submitted to the Government of India?
- (b) And if so, will the Government be pleased to state what those proposals are? What decision, if any, have the Government arrived at regarding the proposals?
- (c) If no decision has been arrived at, will the Government be pleased to say whether they are disposed to take a favourable view of the matter?

The Hon'ble the Ruler of Kutch asked:—

- (a) The question of the improvement of the harbour of Vengalpur has not materially advanced since the reply given in the Council on 22nd March 1932. Does the Government of Madras report that they were disposed to advance a loan scheme about this that recommended by the experts mentioned by the Secretary of State, and that the necessary investigations were then in progress. Nothing has since been heard as to the result of those investigations, and the proposals of the Madras Government are still awaited.
- (b) The question does not call for an answer in view of what is said in reply to (a).

- "(c) The Government of India report that, in the absence of any proposals of the Madras Government, they are unable to say whether they will be able to take a decision in view of the matter. They will, however, give the fullest consideration to whatever scheme the Government of Madras may decide to put forward."

The Hon'ble the EARL OF KILGERAN asked:—

- "(a) Will the Government be pleased to say whether they will recommend to the Secretary of State for India the appointment of a few Indian Members on the Public Service Commission to represent the non-official element of the non-resident community?
 "(b) Will the Government be pleased also to say whether they will largely increase the appointments of non-official members of one or two non-official tribunals in each of the 27 districts which the Royal Commission may visit?"

The Hon'ble the HONORABLE CHAIRMAN replied:—

"The Government of India are not prepared to recommend to the Secretary of State any addition to the membership of the Public Service Commission. As regards the selection of members, they are not in a position to make any statement."

The Hon'ble the HONORABLE R. N. MOONMOOCHUN asked:—

"With reference to the answer given by the Hon'ble the Education Member to the question asked by me on the 21st March last, as the subject of the meeting of the Indian staff of the Government College at Johannesburg, will the Government be pleased to say whether they are now in a position to supply the information there requested?"

The Hon'ble the HONORABLE KILGERAN asked:—

 "The reply to the question is in the affirmative. The administrators of the Central Provinces had submitted proposals which included a more satisfactory scale of pay for these posts. In view of the probability of the formation of a Royal Commission on the Public Service in India, the Government of India were unable to forward the recommendations."

The Hon'ble the HONORABLE R. N. MOONMOOCHUN asked:—

"Will Government be pleased to state as to which of the mentioned railway projects construction is proposed to be commenced in 1913-14, and as to what existing lines, if any, have new extensions and doubling of tracks received the sanction of Government?"

The Hon'ble the T. R. WILSON replied:—

"As the programme for the year 1913-14 has not yet been settled, I regret that it is not possible to supply the information asked for by the Hon'ble Member."

The Hon'ble the HONORABLE R. N. MOONMOOCHUN asked:—

- "(a) Is it a fact that there is a general feeling among Indians that the Indian Community and especially the non-official element of it is not adequately represented on the Royal Commission appointed to inquire into the Public Service of this country? If so, are Government aware of it?
 "(b) If so, is it proposed to take any action to meet this demand?
 "(c) Has the suggestion received the attention of Government that the Commission should be empowered to accept for each province one or more non-official Indian members?"

The Hon'ble the HONORABLE CHAIRMAN replied:—

"The Hon'ble Member is referred to the answer to a similar question put by the Hon'ble Sir George of Kilgeran."
 The Hon'ble the HONORABLE KILGERAN asked:—

- "(a) Will the Government be pleased to state if it is intended to award any compensation to Mr. J. O. Clarke, J.C.S., the defendant in the case of Veragadia Native Boy Community versus Clarke?
 "(b) Is it not the fact that the defense of Mr. Clarke was conducted by the law officers of the Crown and the entire expense borne by Government?
 "(c) Did Mr. Clarke at any time during the progress of the case suffer any stoppage of pay or promotion?"

The Hon'ble the HONORABLE CHAIRMAN replied:—

"With reference to the first portion of the question, Government is not at present in a position to make a statement. The answer to the second part of the question is in the affirmative, and to the third portion is the negative."

The Hon'ble the HONORABLE KILGERAN asked:—

"Will the Government be pleased to state if any decision has been arrived at in the matter of the expansion of the executive and judicial functions of a Magistrate?"

The Hon'ble the HONORABLE CHAIRMAN replied:—

"The Government of India are not at present in a position to make a statement on the subject."

The Hon'ble the HONORABLE KILGERAN asked:—

"Will the Government be pleased to state what effect, if any, will be given to the recommendations of the Disestablishment Commission in the matter of Land Self-Government? Do the Government propose to invite non-official public opinion on the subject before coming to a final decision?"

DELEGATION OF POWERS BILL.

The Hon'ble Sir RICHARD CHAMBERLAIN:—“My Lord, I mean for leave to withdraw the Bill to provide for the delegation of executive powers and duties to certain cases. The Bill was referred to a Select Committee on the motion of my Hon'ble colleague Mr. Boyd. All I mean on the fifth day after it was introduced during the discussion in Select Committee that there were serious difficulties connected with the Bill, the consideration of which has detained the Government and it proved impossible to agree to a satisfactory definite distinction between functions which were respectively executive, judicial and legislative, and it was suggested that the power of delegation provided by the Bill should relate only to executive powers and duties. But there are serious matters lying on the headland of a constitutional or quasi-legislative nature regarding which controversy might arise. Further, although it was not actually provided in the Bill, yet it was definitely stated in the Objects and Reasons that it was not intended to use the measure for making delegations of a constitutional nature. Discussion in the Select Committee made it clear that it might prove difficult to proceed to Bill would be opposed to a delegation that might hereafter be proposed to be made under the Bill would be changed to be converted into a measure of emergency. It was found that, in order to assign any possible scheme of the Bill as to its effect delegation of power or authority which ought to have been of special legislation, it would be necessary to hedge the measure about with as many limitations as to sub it of its chief usefulness. For these reasons, it seemed advisable that the particular scheme should be dropped. But this does not mean that Government have in any way abandoned the policy of decentralization of powers which the Bill was intended to secure, and it does cover a measure for decentralization will be prepared which will afford the desired light by means of an Act with schedules of delegation attached, and it is not considered that the difficulties and trouble attendant upon preparing these schedules will be very greater than the difficulties and trouble which would have been caused by preparing amendments under the Bill now to be withdrawn.”

Another objection taken was that it is inconvenient to modify date on the Statute-book by means of amendments, and that the better method of amending the powers given in particular Acts would be by special legislation. The Government proposed will have to be affected in some cases by legislation in the second Parliament Council, and in others by legislation in this Council. The Government is satisfied after due consideration, that the scheme proposed is the best, and for these reasons, I beg to move that the Bill be withdrawn.”

The Hon'ble Sir RICHARD CHAMBERLAIN:—“My Lord, I beg to offer to the Government of India my congratulations for the withdrawal of this Bill. There are certain points referred to in the Government of India which require very careful consideration in this day are essential. We have always felt that the Government of India, placed in a more secure atmosphere than the Local Governments, are often more better qualified to judge of the nature of these powers, and there are several apprehensions in our minds that this Delegation Bill, if passed into law, would destroy many of the safeguards which we enjoy under the present system, and therefore to us it is a matter of serious consideration that the Hon'ble the Home Minister has seen his way to withdraw the Bill as introduced. Probably we shall offer an amendment in a Bill which may be properly framed and which will alternate from the delegation of powers which it is absolutely essential should remain in the hands of the Imperial Government.”

The motion was put and agreed to.

WILD BIRDS AND ANIMALS PROTECTION BILL.

The Hon'ble Sir RICHARD CHAMBERLAIN:—“My Lord, I beg to present the Report of the Select Committee on a Bill to make better provision for the protection and preservation of animals, wild birds and animals which I introduced in Council on the 24th of February last. On that evening I explained briefly the history of the measure, and I read out what I had to say in explanation of the changes proposed by the Select Committee and are not important. They provide for the protection of females and the immature young of wild birds and animals as distinct from full-grown males, a distinction which it is frequently necessary to make for the preservation of particular species. They also considered it proper that cases under the Act should not be tried by the Local Magistrates, and they struck out that part of clause 5 which authorized the Court to sentence any person or other implement used by the commission of any offence under the Act, as it was not considered necessary to go outside the ordinary criminal law as a matter of this kind. A new clause empowering the authorities to grant licenses to kill or capture wild birds or animals in the interests of scientific research has been added, and finally the exemption from liability to prosecution of persons who injured or killed wild birds or animals in defence of property has been amplified so as to cover all cases that might arise. At the next meeting of the Council, I will, with Your Lordship's permission, move that the Bill be taken into consideration and passed.”

PRESIDENCY SMALL CAUSE COURTS (AMENDMENT) BILL.
INDIAN EXTRADITION (AMENDMENT) BILL.

The Hon'ble Sir RICHARD CHAMBERLAIN:—“My Lord, I beg to introduce here two Bills of a formal nature regarding which there is not likely to be any controversy or controversy. The first of these Bills is a Bill to amend the Presidency Small Cause Courts Act of 1925. The proposal contained in the Bill, namely, to raise the jurisdiction of Small Cause Courts in respect of immovable property to an annual value of a rupee, not exceeding Rs. 500, instead of the present limit of Rs. 100 has the approval of all the High Courts in the Presidency towns. It is necessary in the case of so small a matter to refer the Bill to a Select Committee, and, with Your Lordship's permission, at the next meeting I shall propose that the Bill be passed.”

“The second measure, also of a very formal nature, is to amend the Indian Extradition Act of 1932. The reason for this small amendment, namely, to give explicitly to Presidency Magistrates the power of execution of the warrants of judicial officers the same powers that District Magistrates knows and expressed the fear that there were difficulties in the way, and that some of them would prove insuperable. I have tried according to my own humble lights to take the sole middle course, to comfort the sanguine hopes of one class, of persons with the unfettered fears of the other, and I think that, if we accept this whole matter fully, we may ultimately secure the settlement, which I have adopted, after thinking over the matter for twenty or thirty years, and that it has there is no real obstacle to the formation of a local government. I am quite aware of the old controversy between Lord Lansdown and Lord Clyde about local government and all that, but apart from the fact that that was settled long ago, and that the political and economical view in this country, was turned into a fighting issue, they would simply repeat all the old and that might be assumed in as I hope will be given to the subject some time or other before long, that the matter can be made clear. I have not offered my evidence before the Military Committee, because I have felt that I could not state my case fully before any Committee of which I was not myself a member. I think those who have served in some Committee, at least as I have, will quite understand the force of this remark about which I shall say nothing further. But when answer to all the questions which have been put have been received, I hope we shall get forth a strong, successful, convincing case which will show the Government that it will simply repeat them to refute the right claim of the disarmed community in this country. I know that before there have been firing at certain sections of our people, but I feel that which was not done in the past may now do in the future, and the story of this struggle, although it belongs to past history, belongs for ever to our antiquity. We have studied our own past that have been simply recognized, and Your Lordship must be quite familiar with the enormous loss record of the fighting, questions of those of our race who have been kind of enemies in the British type of abasement. While I am on this point I should like just to say in a few words that, as the subject is likely to be discussed outside the Indian Press, I do hope that I can depend on every Member of this august Council, and especially the Indian Members, to re-emphasize nothing like me anywhere in this matter.

Our Council Indian members are stretching forth the tendrils of their hopes towards material privileges and power. We, for our part, are simply claiming the privilege of having down our throats by our Empire and our King; and I think I may depend upon the good feeling of the Indian Members of this Council not to add any bitterness to my contention that our tale goes on this subject exists. I say so, because I have already seen some remarks that I hardly consider worth notice, which are characteristic of a type of feeling which I hope will never arise in this Council.

And now word more, My Lord, and I have done. After the success that have been recorded by the Military Committee, the force of my Resolutions may seem somewhat disappointed, because they ask Government to consider what has already been partly done, but I am sure every Member of the Council realizes that that is so, because the terms of the Resolutions were fixed before the Committee was appointed. That I think, My Lord, is all that is necessary to my upon this occasion. I have put one word to add. I have been honoured with an interview since I came into the Council this morning by Your Excellency and His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, and I have received the happy assurance that, although it is impossible for the Government to give effect at this stage in any sense whatsoever, yet they will give us a sympathetic consideration of all that we have to advance. That is all that we could ever desire. We ask for fair treatment in a country of strength and old traditions, but we ask for no favours. It is no fair deal is a certain sense of the term that we claim, and I feel most thankful for the assurance that I have received this morning. In consideration of what I have just said, I request permission to withdraw my Resolutions.

[The EXCELLENCY THE PRESIDENT:—] In view of the Noble Member's request to withdraw the Resolutions, the Resolutions are withdrawn.

The Council adjourned to Wednesday, the 13th September, 1912.

W. H. VISCONTI,
Secretary to the Council of India, Legislative Dept.

APPENDIX E.

Statement regarding Mohammedan Deputy Inspectors of Schools referred to in the Notice for Recruitment Notice No. 10, Charge's position.

The Madras Government maintain 58 schools specially intended for Mohammedans. Such schools are also maintained by Municipalities and Local Boards.

There are four Sub-Inspector Inspectors for Mohammedan schools and, besides them, there are in charge of the Madrassa schools in the West Coast districts. Their work lies almost entirely in the supervision of Mohammedan Elementary education. They inspect all Mohammedan Elementary schools, and control all the Government Mohammedan Secondary schools in their respective ranges and submit all correspondence relating to them. They select schools for aid, and prepare in the form of reports of the Government Secondary schools.

Notes.—There is one special Mohammedan Deputy Educational Inspector. His schools are maintained by Government exclusively for the use of Mohammedans, though there is a normal class in which only Mohammedan candidates for teachership in Urdu schools are admitted.

The duty of the special Mohammedan Deputy Educational Inspector is to inspect the Urdu teaching schools of the Southern Division, and advise regarding them. He has no administrative duties. He is expected to bring to the notice of the Educational Inspector of the Division any measures which, from the experience gained in the course of his inspection, he considers desirable for popularizing Urdu schools, and the transfer and promotion of teachers in these schools are made by reference to him. He is a member of the Yerranadu Fort St. George Committee, and his office is situated at St. George's.

Besides this officer there are two Mohammedan Deputy Inspectors and twenty-four Mohammedan Municipalities in the Presidency proper, besides three Madrassa in Pondicherry and two in the districts of Madras and Tanjore, the total being an added institution. All these institutions are inspected by Mohammedan officers.

Staff.—There is a special Mohammedan Inspecting officer in each of the following towns:—

Town.	Rank of officer.
Bombay Division	Deputy Inspector.
Poona Division	Deputy Inspector.
Madras Division	Deputy Inspector.
Patna and Bihar Division	Deputy Inspector.
Orissa Division	Deputy Inspector.
Chota Nagpur Division	Sub-Inspector.
.. .. .	Sub-Inspector.

In addition to the special inspecting staff mentioned above there are some Inspecting Officers who, with the other Mohammedan members of the Subordinate Inspecting Agency, assist in a special effort in the inspection of Madrassa. These special officers inspect mainly Government Mohammedan schools, but all classes of institutions for Mohammedans. They also inspect Urdu and Persian classes of High Schools and Fort St. George Training Schools where Urdu is taught. They are exclusively employed on the inspecting work in connection with Mohammedan education.

- (1) The College Madrassa.
- (2) The High School Madrassa.
- (3) The Middle English Schools for Mohammedans in Calcutta.
- (4) Seven Army Training Schools.
- (5) Seven Model Madrassa.

It is proposed to open seven additional Model Madrassa very shortly.

The following statement shows the number of schools under the charge of each of the Special Mohammedan Inspecting Officers:—

United Province.—There are no special Mohammedan Deputy Educational Inspectors of Schools; there are four Government Model High Schools intended specially for Mohammedans at Benares, Bareilly, Budaun and Allahabad.

Anglo.—There are no special Mohammedan Deputy Educational Inspectors of Schools, nor are any special schools for Mohammedans maintained by Government. Out of a district inspecting staff of 37 officers, 11 are Mohammedans, so that the addition of a special Mohammedan Inspector is not considered necessary.

Punjab.—There is one Mohammedan Deputy Inspector of Mohammedan Schools.

There are no special schools for Mohammedans maintained by Government. There are however two District Civil and Vernacular schools specially opened for Mohammedans in 1910, in the Ajayab district.

The Mohammedan Deputy Inspector of Schools inspects and examines Vernacular Mohammedan schools and students under correspondence relating to them. He also assists in the inspecting and examinations of Anglo-Vernacular Mohammedan schools. Besides the two District Civil and Vernacular schools mentioned above there are 110 aided Vernacular and five aided Anglo-Vernacular Mohammedan schools.

Eastern Bengal and Assam.—There are no special Mohammedan Deputy Inspectors of schools, but of the total number of 36 Deputy and 119 Sub-Inspectors, 51 and 63 respectively are Mohammedans. There are also five special Mohammedan Sub-Inspectors for the inspection of madrasahs and other Mohammedan institutions for elementary instruction.

Two senior Madrasahs at Dacca and Chittagong and a junior Madrasah at Rajshahi are maintained by Government for Mohammedan pupils. A portion of the cost of these institutions is defrayed from the Madras Fund.
